KINGDOM BIBLE QUIZ

Answer key: Romans Bible Quiz

Each answer has a short explanation and the Bible passage to read.

1. B. None

Paul cites the scriptural verdict that there is no one righteous, not even one.

Romans 3:10

2. B. It is excluded

Paul asks where boasting is and answers that it is excluded — not by a law requiring works, but by the law that requires faith.

Romans 3:27

3. A. Grace increased all the more

Paul states that the law was brought in so that the trespass might increase, but where sin increased, grace increased all the more.

Romans 5:20

4. D. The gift of righteousness

Paul declares that those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and the gift of righteousness will reign in life through Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:17

5. B. His invisible qualities - eternal power and divine nature

Paul explains that since the creation of the world, God's invisible qualities — his eternal power and divine nature — have been clearly seen and understood through what he has made.

Romans 1:20

6. C. Rome

The letter is addressed to the believers living in Rome, as Paul states in the opening greeting.

Romans 1:7

7. A. You condemn yourself when you judge others while doing the same things

Paul warns that those who pass judgment on others condemn themselves, since they do the same things they judge in others.

Romans 2:1

8. C. To renew your mind and not be conformed to this world

The verse calls believers not to be shaped by the values of the present age but instead to undergo a transformation through the renewal of their minds.

Romans 12:2

9. B. Abraham was declared righteous before circumcision, making him father of uncircumcised believers

Paul makes the point that Abraham received circumcision as a sign and seal of the righteousness he already had by faith while still uncircumcised — meaning faith, not circumcision, is the basis of righteousness.

Romans 4:10-11

---

10. A. Romans 1:17

Paul explicitly states in the opening of the letter that the gospel reveals the righteousness of God — a righteousness that operates from faith to faith.

Romans 1:17

---

11. C. To submit to governing authorities

Paul instructs believers to submit to the governing authorities, since all authority has been established by God.

Romans 13:1-7

---

12. A. Justification by faith

The first eight chapters of Romans center heavily on the theme of salvation through faith and the righteousness that God provides.

Romans 1:16-17; Romans 3:21-28; Romans 5:1-2; Romans 8:1-4

---

13. B. The Law exposes and increases awareness of sin

Paul explains that the Law makes sin known and reveals wrongdoing, but it does not have the power to deliver anyone from sin.

Romans 7:7-13

---

14. D. They're judged by the law written on their hearts, as conscience bears witness

Paul argues that Gentiles who do not have the written law but act in keeping with what it requires show that its demands are written on their hearts, with their consciences bearing witness.

Romans 2:12-16

---

15. B. He is the father of all who believe

Paul holds Abraham up as the defining example of justification by faith, showing that Abraham's belief was credited to him as righteousness and that this makes him the spiritual father of all who believe.

Romans 4:11-12
